CLINICAL CHEMISTRY
Jeddah - 2023

ABSTRACT SUBMISSION GUIDELINES

DEADLINE FOR SUBMISSION

- The deadline for abstract submission will be October 1st, 2023.

RULES FOR SUBMISSION

- An author from each abstract must register and pay the fees, attend the conference and present the work if accepted for presentation.
- Previously presented abstracts will be reviewed; however, they will not be accepted for presentation if they have been published as full papers before the date of the conference.
- Only abstracts related to the field of clinical chemistry (basic and applied) will be considered for review.
- All abstracts must be submitted and presented in clear English with accurate grammar and spelling of a quality suitable for publication.
- Six (6) Abstracts of young investigators (under 35 years of age) will be selected for a 10 minutes oral presentation by the young investigator and will be considered for the young investigator competition award. Therefore, willingness to present the abstract as oral presentation, if accepted and selected for oral presentation, should be mentioned at the time of abstract submission. All other accepted abstracts will be considered for the poster competition award.
- Instructions for preparation of poster/oral presentations will be sent together with acceptance notifications.
- Only abstracts sent to the official e-mail (sscc.abstracts@gmail.com) will be considered for review.
- You will receive confirmation that your abstract has been received, indicating the abstract number which it has been allocated. Please refer to this abstract number in all correspondence regarding the abstract.
- All submitted abstracts will be forwarded to the Committee for review. Notifications regarding status will be sent once the review process is complete. The Scientific Committee will make every effort to provide notifications within two weeks of the abstract submission deadline.
